

- Assumptions;-
- The drug is supplied at a fixed price, then the pharmacy sells it at its own price according to its profit percentage.
 - The pharmacy is uniquely identified by a joint primary key made of its name and address
 - Pharmacy employs staff that prepares prescriptions and they have a bonus based on how many orders they have prepared.